How Can We Respond to the War in the Persian Gulf?

by Vicki Luna, Editor

The Gulf War has become an ongoing, heavy burden in all of our lives. Some of us are more directly involved, with friends and loved ones serving on the desert front. There are even several of our own community who are now serving in the military. Mark Ingalls, of our Admissions Department, was called last week for a three week tour as part of his duty as a Chaplain with the Air Force Reserve. He is now in Saudi Arabia. One SOT student, Leland Barkell, quit Seminary two weeks ago when he was called into duty as a reserve Marine pilot and SOP student, Karen Struble, saw her husband, Lt. Dan Struble of the Navy reserve, leave for Saudi on February 7. Brothers, sisters, friends, roommates, cousins, sons of students who are serving in the Gulf are listed in the Garth on a board provided by OSS and on yellow ribbons tied to the tree in the prayer garden. But even those of us who do not know anyone personally involved cannot escape the sobering reality of the affects of war, even in our sheltered and protected lives in Pasadena, California.

How do we respond? For many of the younger American students, like myself, this is the first major war experience in which our country has been directly involved. For weeks, I wrestled with how to think and what to feel. Now, almost a month since the news that the allied coalition first attacked Iraqi forces, there remains a lingering, unresolved heaviness, as I resume my daily routine.

War is a hateful thing. Yet, I do not see anything in the Bible that tells me to oppose it. I do know that I, as a Christian, have a responsibility to respond to the war in a Christ-like manner. Likewise, we, as a Christian institution, Fuller Seminary, have a similar responsibility.

So, how do I respond? As a believer in the sovereignty and mercy of God, I know of nothing else to do but to pray, to intercede with humility on behalf of my country and its allies, as well as those we, today, call the "enemy." I have a responsibility to pray for men and women, by name, whose lives are threatened by the violence of war. When I meet someone in the grocery store or at the gym who is afraid for the life of someone close to them, I can comfort them by promising to pray. Somehow, prayer is "okay" in times of crisis. Amidst our President's, the network newscasters' and even car dealer billboards' encouragements to pray, I think people will see an intimacy in our relationships with God which will offer sincere solace to those who are lost and afraid. There are a dozen names listed on that board in the Garth and over 30 yellow ribbons on the tree in the prayer garden, filled with names of people important to brothers and sisters in my own community. I can and need to pray for them.

Two weeks ago, at a joint faculty meeting, the Seminary's response to the war was discussed. At that meeting, it was decided that each faculty member would take time in their classes to allow the students to process their feelings about the war and to pray. A series of faculty convocations are also planned for Chapel services.

Dr. Samuel Southard has collected a series of articles and a bibliography of resources for coping and caring in wartime. As Dr. Southard writes, "When we are plunged into war or any other disaster, we need explanations that help us cope with the horror of what is happening and actions that bring relief to the suffering and strength to the bereaved." The ASC office has secured copies for students, available through their office which is located in Kreysler Hall, above the Catalyst.

Chapel Services

Christian Responses to the War in the Gulf

The administration and faculty with the cooperation of the student body have set aside the 10 a.m. Chapel hour this week for discussion, reflection, prayer and worship that will relate to the war in the Gulf.

Monday, February 11, 10 a.m. FACULTY FORUM, Travis Auditorium. Dr. Dudley Woodberry professor of Islamic Studies (SWM) will speak on Islamic issue as they influence our understanding of policies and actions in the Middle East. Dr. Woodberry is a widely recognized authority on such matters and is constantly called by government agencies corporations and other organizations operating in that part of the world.

Tuesday, February 12, 10 a.m. FACULTY FORUM, Travis Auditorium. Provost, Richard Mouw, will lead the discussion and will be followed by Dr. Richard Gorusch, Dr. Nancy Murphey, and Dr. David Augsburg. After their brief presentations, the meeting will be open to questions from the students to guide the discussion.

Wednesday, February 13, 10 a.m. COMMUNITY WORSHIP, Presbyterian Sanctuary. Observed by many traditions of the Christian Church as Ash Wednesday, today is the beginning of a spiritual pilgrimage towards Easter. Our worship service will be led by the women faculty. The preacher will be Dr. James McClendon, distinguished visiting Professor of Theology and Ethics. Join the entire community as we observe this day of repentance and renewal. Offices will be closed.

Thursday, February 14, 10 a.m. SWM CHAPEL, Travis Auditorium. Special service of worship and praise, with a focus on prayer for the Gulf Crisis.

S.A.V.O.R. Helps Feed Seminararians

Pasadena is plagued with financially strapped people. Fuller is no exception. After paying tuition, many students and their families struggle to have food on the table. Because of this reality, several years ago students organized a task force to begin a food distribution. They called themselves Seminary Association of Volunteers Organized for Relief (S.A.V.O.R.), this organization continues to offer food stipends of Fuller students once a month. Brenda Flores, of I.S.S., administers this program. ASC, then, employs food and furniture distributors who are responsible to collect and allocate the food and furniture for students in need. Some of the food is freely given by the government, other food is bought through a special organization that gives $15 worth of food for $1. Though the program is funded by the Fuller fund, this purchasing money comes from donations. As the price of tuition continues to mount, so does the need among us. There is a tremendous need for donations to continue to offer and enhance this service.

On February 20, the ASC has planned a mid-day fast (9 a.m. - 2 p.m.) We invite all those who want to join us to skip their noon meal and to give their meal money to S.A.V.O.R. You may decide not to fast, but you may still want to contribute. There will be someone in the Garth during this time so that you can give to help your brothers and sisters on campus.

Missions Concerns Committee

The Missions Concerns Committee is a branch of the ASC which facilitates cross-cultural internship experiences for the Fuller student body. This is accomplished through Fuller Fund scholarships, connecting him or her with an agency, training, and through prayer.

This year our goal is to send 30 Fuller students on summer internships to various countries around the world. You can help! Join us for our weekly prayer meeting in the Catalyst lounge, Wednesday's at 5 p.m. We will be praying for a different area of the world each week. In addition, you can write to us at Box 742 if you would like to be involved in a summer ministry. We will place you with the mission organization of your choice and prepare you for your cross-cultural experience. You can also help by donating to the Fuller Fund during Spring registration—your money will be used.

Please join us in the Catalyst Lounge for a time of prayer for Russia/Eastern Europe this week. We will be discussing ministry opportunities to these countries.

Women's Concerns Committee

Tuesday, February 12, 7 p.m. in Payton 101, the Women's Concerns Committee is sponsoring a guest lecture by Janet Hagberg. She will be speaking of "Real Power: Stages of Personal Power in Organizations."

"What Language Shall We Borrow?: Images and Metaphors from Man's Language." This lecture guest speaker is Mary Ellen Ashcroft on February 14, 7:30 p.m. in Payton 101.

International Students Concerns Committee Survey

Thank you International Students for your response to our survey! It is very important for us to know your concerns. So far, we have only received 20% of the questionnaires back and we would like more. So, please check your mail for the questionnaire and send it back to us. If you have lost the sheet, look at the ISCC board in the Garth. You may pick up a new sheet and respond. Your voice counts.

ASC Highlights Ethnic Concerns Committee

PEACE AND BLESSINGS FROM THE CREATOR THROUGH JACQUETTA TO YOU! I am the African/ American African representative on the Ethnic Concerns Committee. My goal is to unite students of African descent so that we will be recognized as one entity with needs and interests specific to our culture. Africans are a diverse people whether on the Continent or in other parts of the world, but we have a spiritual link that God has blessed us with—our rich African heritage.

We are celebrating that heritage in February, which is African (Black) History Month. It is only apropos to give the history of this celebration at this time.

In 1926, Carter G. Woodson instituted Negro History Week. It later became Black History Week and has now been extended to Black History Month. However, I elect to call the celebration African History Month because the history that we acknowledge did not merely begin in this country (and other countries around the world) where we were simply black (as opposed to having a cultural ancestry), but it began in Africa, the Motherland from whence we were brought and separated. February is our time to celebrate our rich, spiritual, cultural and historical legacy as Africans.

Therapy Opportunities for the Fuller Community

Low Cost Confidential Counseling

Fuller Psychological and Family Service is offering a $10 subsidy for all new clients who are Fuller students, employees, or relatives of Fuller students seeking child, couple or family therapy. Subsidies will be available through the end of the winter quarter. If interested, please contact Kim or Terry at 584-5555.

Individual Psychotherapy

Thought about getting into therapy? If you are experiencing anxiety, depression, relationship difficulties, problems adjusting to changes in life circumstances, or just interested in personal growth, then we encourage you to take advantage of this opportunity. Low cost individual psychotherapy will be offered through Fuller's School of Psychology, beginning February. Fifteen sessions will be provided for a total cost of $30. For further information, contact Mary Ann at 584-5500 or speak with her directly by stopping by the reception desk on the ground floor of Finch Hall.

Women in Missions Support Group

Cross-cultural ministry can challenge us at our core. If you would like a place to explore your experience in mission or to prepare for an upcoming period of service—or if you just want a safe group where your mission interest is accepted—then consider joining the WOMEN IN MISSION therapy group which meets weekly in Finch Hall. For more information contact Esther Wakeman at 584-5555.

The SEMI appears each week as a service to the Fuller community by the Office of Student Services, Fuller Theological Seminary, Pasadena, California 91182. Notices may be submitted to the Editor (Kreyssler Hall, 2nd Floor) until 5 p.m. on the Friday a week and a half prior to the date of publication. No late notices can be accepted. Users will be charged for notices which exceed 75 words in length. Notices from individuals or churches for events not directly sponsored by a Fuller office or organization will be printed in the "Ads" section and charged per word. Final editorial responsibility rests with Ruth Fuglie, Director of the Office of Student Services. For more information please contact Vicki Luna, Editor, in the Office of Student Services at 584-5430.

Community Announcements

Bridge to Sobriety More than 900 million dollars is spent each year to advertise alcoholic beverages. Don't you think something should be done to counter that influence? Take the time to learn about alcohol and drugs and how they can affect peoples' lives. Reach out to and pray for those persons struggling with addiction. Bridge to Sobriety is a service of the Office of Christian Community which provides information and resources regarding chemical addictions. Mary Ann Bowman (Box 1183) and Jim Johnson (Box 1167) are available to help you in your efforts.

Spirituality Retreat Lent, 40 days before Easter. The season traditionally set aside to prepare ourselves for the passion, death and resurrection of Jesus. What will you do this Lent? Why not set aside time to reflect anew on the true meaning of Easter? Join the Office of Christian Community for a Spirituality Retreat on Friday, February 15 from 1:15-4:30 p.m. (carpool from Fuller at 1 p.m.) at "The Old Mill," 1120 Old Mill Road, San Marino. The retreat will be led by Mary-Ellen Ashcroft (PhD student, writer, and teacher). Cost: $3.00 Thereafter, every day from 1:15 - 2:15 p.m. in the Prayer Garden, there will be a guided time of prayer and meditation on this theme. For more information, contact Claire Nye, OCC, 584-5322.

Special Buy in the Bookstore! We have just received a great value on The Bible Promise Book in blue or mauve leatherette. Regularly priced at $4.95, the Bookstore is selling these great inspirational gifts not at $3.99, nor at $2.99, but at a low $1.79 each. At that price you will want to pick up several. Two Fuller Faculty titles to note: Nancy Murphey's Theology in the Age of Scientific Reasoning and Siang Yang Tan's Lay Counseling. The Bookstore still has numerous in-house specials and is open until 6 p.m. on Monday through Friday for your shopping convenience.

Madison House Childcare Babysitting available for different class sessions for children between the ages of 6mo-5yrs. Interesting, stimulating, and developmentally appropriate program. Understanding and caring staff present. Call Cherry, Monday-Thursday, 9 am-3 pm at 793-3827.

Parents' Night Out Go for a Date!!!! Babysitting available at Madison House for Fuller Students and Staff, and their spouses. Every Friday, 5-8 p.m. Call Cherry Monday-Wednesday, 9 am-3 pm, for reservations. Limited spaces only! 793-3827 $4 per child / $3 per additional child in the family.

SWM Chaplains Bruce and Margaret Thomson are available to pray with you. Please feel free to call them at their home (794-3154) or send a note to their box #1003 if they could be of help to you.

Congratulations to Mohammed and Joan Mussa on the birth of their baby boy, Joshua, on January 28th. Although Joshua was born almost two months early, and weighs only 3 lbs. 3 oz., the specialists were very surprised at how well he was doing (breathing on his own, etc.). Do pray for continued healthy growth and for him to feel secure and loved during his stay in the incubator. Mohammed and Joan are very thankful for you prayers.

International Student Lunches The international students are still meeting for lunch every Tuesday from 12:30 - 1:30 p.m. (not 1 - 2 p.m.) in the Refectory or the Garth (if it's sunny). Look for the sign on the table and join us.

Catalyst Chats On Monday, February 11, Dr. George Cummings will discuss the "Theology of the Slave Narratives" with students who bring a lunch to the Catalyst lounge and gather to chat.

Valentines

To LC & KT so fair,
From the 1-2-4 dudes debonaire,
We just wanna say,
Happy Valentines Day,
And wherever you are, "We are there!"

To the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles: Life at Fuller has been AWESOME because of you dudes. Thanks for your friendships. - Grace-

Housing and Building Services would like to wish each tenant the happiest Valentine's Day. May love and joy fill and bless your home.

To the wonderful Fuller Faculty, past and present, who have aided my love for Jesus and His church:

Ray Anderson, for his penetrating challenges.

Colin & Olive Brown, for their pastoral caring.

Fred Bush, for his warm testimony.

Jim Butler, for his contagious OT enthusiasm.

Julie Gorman, for her shining commitment.

Ian Pitt-Watson, for his demonstrated primacy of the indicative.

Gary Sattler, for his honest and open wrestlings with the Truth.

Russ Spittler, for his encouragement 9 yrs ago and his transparent faith.

For these and others, I praise and thank the love of my life, Jesus Christ. Sincerely, Jean Holmes.

SHE IS GOOD!

Rx

The Office of Student Services assists students with health concerns at the Seminary; we are often asked by YOU for recommended doctors or health services in the area.

We want to make sure that the information in our Medical Referral Notebook is current and accurate. Some of the ways you could help are:

1. If you have seen any of the doctor's on the list and think that "She/He is good!" we would like to add that as a student observation and retain the doctor.

2. If you have seen a doctor, accessed a health service, or know of quality health care in the area which you believe would be helpful to the Fuller community we would be glad to include that information in our Medical Referral Notebook.

3. The converse is true too. If there have been bad experiences we would not hesitate to delete that referral.
